

CAS Proposal Planning Guide

Instructions: Please read the CAS Handbook thoroughly and think about the CAS stages of investigation, preparation, and action. Use your interests, passions and goals to complete the information below to plan your CAS proposal. Risk analysis must be conducted for experiences off school grounds.

THE CAS PROPOSAL DOCUMENT IS DUE BY November 16, 2021

Be as specific as you can at this time in planning your CAS Proposal:

Creativity experiences (at least two different ones)-

- 1.
- 2.

Activity experiences (at least two different ones)-

- 1.
- 2.

Service experiences (at least two different ones)-

- 1.
- 2.

What activity are you designating as your CAS Project? How will you take on a leadership role in the CAS project? What risks are involved?

Which activity(s) will be collaborative?

Which activity(s) will challenge you to develop new skills?

Which activity(s) will engage ethical issues? Global significance?

Ethical~

Global~

Do your activities address recommended participation 3-4 hours per week over 18 months?

Will your activities provide you with an opportunity for significant reflection that is necessary to demonstrate the learner outcomes for CAS Closing Presentation/Demonstration?

How will you provide reflective evidence for each activity in varying formats (8 minimum)?
